PROJECT SEED VIRTUAL SUMMER CAMP

2021 CABIN LEADER CALL-OUT

Camp Dates: June 21 - July 30, 2021

Training Dates: June 9 - 18, 2021

Looking for a summer opportunity to mentor the future generation of scientists?

DETAILS

The American Chemical Society is looking for undergraduate and graduate students to serve as Cabin Leaders for a 6 week long virtual summer camp hosting ~450 students interested in the STEM field.

Role:

- Mentor current high school students on current research, resume building, college life, etc.
- Hold 2-3 meetings per week with a small group of students
- Work with fellow undergraduate and graduate students to create engaging activities

Benefits:

- Build your current resume; ideal for aspiring teachers
- Mentor future scientists and share your expertise and learnings with them
- $2,000 stipend

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a current undergraduate or graduate student (medical school students and post-doctoral fellows are eligible as well)
- No significant competing priorities that would prevent availability for meetings and trainings
- Research or technical experience

Deadline is April 30, 2021

FAQ

- How many students will I be in charge of? You will work with another cabin leader to be in a charge of 6-12 high school students.
- How many hours per week? Expect 10-15 hours per week (for 6 weeks) devoted to cabin meetings, optional national meetings, and grading.
- How much will I get paid? $2000
- I've never worked with students, will there be training? Absolutely! We will train you on how to set up Zoom meetings, how to effectively work with high school students, how to grade assignments, etc.
- If I'm a graduate student doing research this summer, can I still participate? Yes, but please have a discussion with your PI to ensure they are aware of the time you will need to devote to the program.

How to apply:

- Complete the online application including 4 short essays responses
- Upload Resume
- Upload a technical writing sample
- Request recommendation (1)

Thank you so much for this outstanding experience. This summer camp has inspired me to pursue a teaching job in the foreseeable future after working for some time in the industry. It was such a rewarding and humbling experience to serve as a mentor for high school students.
